

WHY JOIN LACDL

CLE Seminars

LACDL sponsors four to seven CLE seminars each year, all at a discounted rate for members. The seminars feature practitioners of contemporary trial tactics along with state and nationally recognized experts to discuss legal issues challenging the criminal defense bar.

Membership Directory

LACDL's Membership Directory provides quick access to Louisiana's leading criminal defense lawyers.

LACDL Discussion Forums

The Discussion Forums are reserved for members of LACDL. It provides a quick and easy way to contact colleagues to discuss pressing legal issues and hard to answer questions.

Attorney Assistance

Our members are ready to step in when emmber attorneys are prosecuted, subpoenaed or cited for contempt for their vigorous defense fo their clients

Legislative Advocacy

LACDL has an aggressive program of legislative action. We retain a Lobbyist who, along with the LEgislative Committee, provides continuous and aggressive representation on issues of importance to the criminal defense bar.

Amicus Action

Our Amicus Committee files briefs in state and federal courts each year, providing defense counsel and the judiciary with expertise on issues affecting the constitutional rights of the accused.

State Office

LACDL has it's state office in baton Rouge with a full-time staff for assisting members.

LACDL Website

With LACDL's website, www.lacdl.org, members can stay abreast of all upcoming events and sign up to receive registration forms for upcoming seminars.

The Louisiana Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers

WHAT IS LACDL?

The Louisiana Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers was formed by a group of criminal defense lawyers in 1985.

Almost three decades later and within more than 600 members throughout Louisiana, it remains a vital cornerstone of support.

Membership in LACDL means joining your fellow defenders in the struggle for liberty, individual rights, the basic principle of due process and the fundamental right to a fair trial.

LACDL affords its members the opportunity to network with peers who share in the passion to protect individual rights and those of the accused. With membership in LACDL, you are not alone!
